Autumn Statement 2015: Employment and Skills

Questions ahead of any major political day at Westminster now have a familiar feel - what will be the rabbit out the Treasury's hat? Whilst commentators and Conservative MPs had expected a roll back of sorts on the Chancellor's contentious plans around tax credits, Osborne's decision to scrap the tax credit cuts completely was unexpected. Rather than phasing the cuts in, he said he had decided the "simplest thing" was "to avoid them altogether".
