International Development Manifesto commitments 2015

Dods Monitoring Road to 2015: Key issues, arguments and individuals

In previous years the major three parties have made general and vague commitments to support international de-velopment and humanitarian projects. The success of Michael Moore and Bill Cash's Private Members Bills, as well as the Department for International Development's (DFID) budget of 0.7 per cent have forced parties to look beyond their typical commitments and go further than their previously 'obvious' ideas. Climate change had been one area NGOs, such as Christian Aid, have called on the parties to make explicit pledges.

The Dods Monitoring team has produced an in-depth paper analysing the key policy debates in the international development sector that will define the electoral competition.
