Legislating for the UK's withdrawal from the EU Summary

Following the publication on March 30 of the White Paper entitled ' Legislating for the UK's withdrawal from the EU ', Dods Monitoring has produced a summary document. This briefing contains the main proposals in the paper along with further detail on the potential timings of the Great Repeal Bill, secondary legislation scrutiny, key people and the key role of the House of Lords as Parliament and its staff look ahead at potentially one of the largest legislative projects ever undertaken in the UK.
